

Status Update

By Anna Von Reitz

I am, in effect, a political prisoner. The justices agreed to receive my closing summation via teleconference video. I will make a video separately of my remarks, as it will be a written statement read into the record, to share with everyone.

It's a summation, not a hearing.

Many of you have been frustrated trying to help and finding Cash App blocked. They only accept a small number of deposits each day even though they describe my account as unlimited. It is exactly because of this kind of behavior that we must have our banks up and running and not fall victim to a monopolized banking regime again.

Please remember that you can use the donate button at the TASA website: <https://tasa.americanstatenationals.org/> You can also send cash and checks (preferably with the Pay to: blank, so that I can assign it to others as needed) via mail: Anna Maria Riezinger, In care of Box 520994, Big Lake, Alaska 99652.

Although I won't have to travel myself --- and can't get there --- we have two teams of four people each, four in the Netherlands and four enroute to New York, to stand as living witnesses and to physically read my statement into the record and make sure certain documents reach the court unmolested.

Each team costs a considerable amount to support each day, so it is a special and large expense we are having to bear on top of all the other normal expenses. I am thanking everyone who has been helping defray this and putting muscle into getting this done.

Certain people around the world are jealous and think this is a "plum" I don't deserve; I would agree with them, but it is more in the sense of not deserving any further burden and work.

If I could avoid the responsibility for what I started, I would; but, as it is, things have to be seen through and finished and arranged and ordered and wrapped up with a bow.

So here I am. Both feet planted. Still serving.

Just like the thousands of military and civil service workers who are still showing up and working without pay.

We are going as fast as we can to bring relief to this situation and food to those who depend on food stamps. Meantime, it's time to bring food to our neighbors.

It's important to understand that the bankrupt UNITED STATES, INC. can't "appropriate" any more money, and the struggling USA, Inc., has to retain as much as it can to fulfill its own performance obligations.

So. They don't have the answer, because they don't have the standing to make the claims and release the funding on the American side of the ledger. The oral arguments have been heard and we are at the summation stage of the process that will allow us to heal the economic hardship of the people of this country and living people around the world

The Vermin have been busy already this week, placing undersea explosive charges in preparation for trying to break lose the Las Palmas edifice, which would cause a tidal wave that would take out much of the East Coast of the United States and could also cause flooding deep into the interior of the country and down the Mississippi River.

Join our National Prayer Circle and pray for peace over the Earth, and especially peace over the Atlantic Ocean and the Pacific Coast of The United States, which are being threatened by these evil men and their evil technologies.

The geo-forming that has been done so far has lifted California and thrust it upward so that the Ancient Permian Shield is pressed down and tilted toward the Atlantic Ocean, like a dinner plate tilted up and to one side. If the Las Palmas complex gives way, it can easily cause a gigantic undersea subsidence and a tidal wave that would rush into the heart of our country, assisted by the tilting of the Great Plains toward the Atlantic and the sinking of the Eastern Seaboard states which has been going on for some time.

Pray against this and against them; recall the promise of the justice of God and his vengeance. Don't let the innocent suffer with the guilty. We have a voice. Raise it!

We are doing all that we can to avoid the nightmare scenario promoted by the Death Cult and to soften the transition -- the very birthing process of what the Hopi tribe calls "the Fourth World".

In their ancient prophecy, the birth of the Fourth World is heralded by the appearance of a Blue Star in an otherwise (and specific) empty space in the night sky --- the Blue Star is there now.

Those who keep faith with the Earth, those who are humble and who shut their eyes, and who love the truth, will live to see the New Earth.

So don't be surprised. Remember the scene in Raiders of the Lost Ark, when Indiana Jones tells his spunky girlfriend not to look, to close her eyes and not open them no matter what? Remember when the living God told Moses that no man could look upon him and live?

The cleansing of the Earth is coming, and so also its renewal. This is a great blessing for those who yearn for peace, for joy, for plenty, for kindness, for companionship of like-minded souls.

Sniff the wind and watch the signs of your deliverance coming.

When the darkness comes, as it surely will, accept it; close your doors and your windows, bar the openings of your house with salt sprinkled in memory of the living God's covenant, then rest within your house like a baby in the womb and pray with thanksgiving that the Angel of Death will pass over you and yours.

Prepare. Think. Remember.
