

Food Banks in Illinois by County

Illinois has a network of food banks and pantries organized primarily through Feeding Illinois, which serves all 102 counties. The list below is organized alphabetically by county. For each county, I've included the primary Feeding Illinois member food bank(s) that cover it, along with their website for more details on locations, hours, and services. Note that some counties are served by multiple banks or regional networks, and smaller counties may share resources. This is based on the latest available data from Feeding Illinois (as of 2025); always verify directly via the websites for real-time updates, as partnerships can evolve.
